

Under the Boardwalk, Over the Moon

Love Stories from Bradley Beach

Register to share your love story on Sunday, November 17 at Oral History Day
Bradley Beach Historical Museum in the Carmen A. Biase Center
719 Main Street from 1- 4pm

The Bradley Beach Historical Society is collecting stories of love that ignited somewhere, sometime in the Boro – whether on a porch, on the sand, downstairs at the LaReine or on the Boardwalk in front of Mike and Lou's. Unlock your memory bank and let the stories flow.

Come to the Bradley Beach Historical Museum on Nov. 17 to tell your love story in 3 minutes or less. Time slot will be assigned upon receipt of registration.

Bradley Love Oral History Guidelines

- Prepare 3-minute story for presentation on Sunday, November 17.
- Include the following essential details:
Your Name: at time described; now if different
Timeframe: Example: Summer 1967; rainy Saturday afternoon 1952
Setting: Brinley Avenue beach, Bradley Beach Elementary School; Summer Share
Details: of first sighting, meeting, date, etc.
Outcome: marriage; summer romance; first love; broken heart; enduring partnership
- Provide Photographs: then and now. Label all photographs so we can scan and return. Caption each photo to identify time, place and people.
- Submit short written history (no more than 500 words) for publication on website. Must be attached to Registration if you plan to tell your story on Sunday, November 17.
